SIR,

With reference to Government order No.Fl.4945-94/G.F.36-17-92 dated 7th April 1919 request to be informed if the amount for reserving space in Newspapers is intended to be paid in advance or in arrears after the expiry of the period for which the payment is due. If in arrears, I beg to suggest that along with the bill on which the amount is drawn, a statement showing the charges debitable to each office may be furnished, so that the allocation to final heads may be made directly without keeping the charge under an advance heads. As it will be known at the end of the period for whom the space has been used, there is not likely to be any difficulty in preparing the statement suggested. Simultaneously the offices concerned may be advised of the charges paid on their behalf and they can show them as adjustments in their contingent bills. If the acceptances of the offices concerned can not be sent with the statement proposed and if such acceptances are considered necessary, the charge after allocation to the final heads concerned will be held under awaiting clearance until receipt of acceptances. If advance payment is intended, I beg to suggest the desirability of making the payment in arrears and not in advance if such an arrangement is possible. The Advance payment complicates the procedure and necessitates the classification of the payment as an advance when it is really not of the nature of an advance at all, and with it the watch over the balance
